OUTLINES.

In the hearing of the petition of the railroads for an injunction of the 2 1-4-cent passenger fare law, Judge Pritchard at Asheville yesterday heard the Southern Railway's attorneys, and will hear the Atlantic Coast Line's side today.——In the smouldering ruins of the fire at Pine Beach, adjoining the Jamestown Exposition, the body of Charles Fulbert, a Bridgeport, Conn., musician, was found; besides a negro bootblack several others are missing.——Governor Ansel and other distinguished South Carolinians and 700 South Carolina troops arrived at the Jamestown Exposition yesterday for the celebration of South Carolina Day today; Lieutenant Victor Blue tendered the Governor a reception last night at the Virginia Club; William M. Smith a graduate of Trinity College and captain of the baseball team, committed suicide at Durham, N. C., yesterday. ——The Hamburg-American Line denies that it will discourage immigration to the South because of false statements about the treatment of immigrants.——In the trial of Judge Loving at Houston, Va., yesterday for the murder of Theodore Estes, Judge Barksdale, citing the precedent in the Thaw trial as to the refusal of the court to allo wthe impeachment of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's testimony, ruled that the prosecution could not attack Miss Elizabeth Loving's story of that fateful buggy ride with Estes; the taking of testimony was concluded and the statement to the jury will be argued today. ——Two thousand men engaged in construction work on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad have been laid off because of the impossibility of securing money on account of legislation inimical to railroads. ——Yesterday was Baltimore Day at the Jamestown Exposition.——Reports from Hong Kong state that 500 Chinese perished recently by the burning of a theatre. ——At the Steunenberg murder trial in Boise, Idaho, yesterday, William Easterly denied Orchard's story connecting him with criminal deeds in Colorado. ——New York markets: Money on call, firm 3 3-4 to 6 per cent.; ruling rate, 5; closing bid, 5 1-2; offered at 6; spot cotton, 10 points higher, closing steady at 13 cents; flour, firm and nominally higher; wheat, strong; No. 2 red $1.00 1-8 elevator; corn, firm; No. 2, 63 1-4 elevator; oats, steady; mixed, 49 1-2; turpentine and rosin, steady.

It is said in Washington that former Senator Marion Butler is more influential than ever with the big circle.

The typographical appearance of the Wilson Daily Times has been greatly improved. The paper is a credit to Wilson.

Some people have now taken to writing poetry about the Jamestown Exposition. The Exposition management, however, should not be blamed for it.

There is a statement going the rounds that 7,000 dogs were killed for food in Germany last year. The mere thought of food like that will start up the newspaper wags.

The Goldsboro Daily Argus keeps on earning congratulations about its attractive bib and tucker and the news service it is now giving its patrons. The Argus is all right.

Some Indiana girls have formed a club and determined not to marry any man who has not at least $4,000. In time to come, most of the members of that club can go as delegates to the Old Maid's Convention.

The packers would have us believe that the government meat inspection system is responsible for putting the price of beef up as high as it was when "the cow jumped over the moon."

Upon being told that he had inherited a fortune, a Washington, Pa., man dropped dead. Nevertheless, men everywhere will run the risk of having that kind of startling news broken to them.

Says the Washington Post: "Nothing on wheels can ever catch up with the popularity of President Roosevelt,' is the opinion of John Temple Graves. Then it is also a hopeless task for anybody with wheels." However, no remarks like those will deter peopple with wheels in their head from undertaking the task.

Judge Alton B. Parker is coming to North Carolina next month and will deliver an address at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Bar Association at Henderson, July 10-12. If Judge Parker has received that apology from President Roosevelt it is to be hoped he will bring it along to prove to North Carolinians that Roosevelt's so-called square deal includes Parker.

PARDONS REFUSED

Hartfield Crandall and ... Edmundson Denied Executive Clemency by Governor

THE TRAINING SCHOOL

No Decision as to Location Until July 10th—Wake Highway Commission Imbroglio—Business Failure at Goldsboro.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 27.—Governor Glenn refuses pardon to Hartsfield Crandall, convicted of assault and trespass at Wilmington last year and sentenced to eighteen months on the roads. The Governor says Crandall had a fair trial and the sentence was not excessive. His conduct since he has been on the roads has not been good and he has made threats as to what he will do when his sentence expires.

Pardon is also refused to Cross Edmundson, who was convicted of murder in the second degree in Columbus county. The trial judge took into consideration all the mitigating circumstances, says the Governor, and only gave the defendant a sentence of three years which was not excessive.

After all there is to be no action taken by the State Board of Education in the selection of the site for the Eastern Carolina Teachers' Training School until July 10. The Board returned yesterday from the tour of inspection to the several towns in the contest and it was given out that the vote would be taken at a meeting of the Board today provided State Auditor Dixon was able to get here from Morehead where he was suffering from ptomain poisoning and Lieutenant Governor Winston could be gotten here for the meeting today. Both were on the scene this morning and the Board met in the Governor's office at 9 o'clock.

However it developed that there was considerable confusion in the minds of several of the members of the Board as to some of the terms offered by representatives of the several towns at the hearing some weeks ago.

Adjutant General T. R. Robertson of the North Carolina National Guard, issued commissions today for S. A. Rector as first lieutenant and R. V. Ladd as second lieutenant of Company K, First Infantry, Asheville.

Game Warden Upchurch of the State Audubon Society says people in this section are getting rather lax in observance of the game laws especially as to the protection of birds other than the strictly game species and that it will require the arrest and prosecution of a number of violators as examples to check this lawlessness. To this end he procured warrants today for two well known white boys, Herbert and Garland Rogers, for shooting cuckoos.

A big delegation from Wake Forest township, this county, appeared before the Wake Commissioners to press a petition for the removal of the Wake Highway Commission created by the last Legislature for misconduct in office in that they have opened a new road in the township, leading to Wake Forest against the protest of over ninety per cent of the citizens and closed up two other important roads to make a semblance of excuse for the new road. N. Y. Gully, dean of the law school at Wake Forest, and S. G. Ryan appeared as attorneys for the petitioners to press the removal of the Commission. No action is yet taken but it is understood that the majority of the Board favor sustaining the Highway Commission in its action.

An order placing Joseph Bros. of Goldsboro, in involuntary bankruptcy has been signed by Judge Purnell of the Federal Court and Deputy United States Marshal Ward has gone to Goldsboro to serve the document. The firm assigned some days ago naming H. C. Smith assignee and dissatisfied creditors instituted the proceeding to force the business into the bankruptcy court. The hearing will be in Raleigh July 5.

Open Branch Office Here.

It is announced in Raleigh that Mr. J. E. O'Donnell, State manager will open a branch office of the National Cash Register Company, of Detroit, Mich., in this city. Mr. John B. Strouach will be in charge of the office here and he will be assisted by Mr. M. Giersch. It is stated that he office will be opened here Monday.

CLUB SOCIAL AT BEACH

Hanover Seaside Organization Gave Delightful Affair Last Night at Their Pretty Home on Wrightsville Beach—Prizes Awarded.

The Hanover Seaside Club yesterday and last night at their pretty club house on Wrightsville Beach gave a delightful social affair to its members and a few invited guests, the occasion having been one of the most pleasant of the season at that popular resort. The halls and rooms of the club house were prettily decorated and during the evening a number of pleasant diversions were provided for those in attendance. The affair was in charge of the House Committee, composed of Messrs. William Tiencken, chairman; Henry Gieschen, E. H. Schulken and J. D. Dosher, Jr., and to them all present are indebted for a most delightful affair.

Excellent music was furnished during the evening by the Seashore Hotel Orchestra and dancing was the pastime for many of the young people from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

During the day and evening there were two bowling contests, one for ladies, the other for gentlemen. In that for gentlemen the first prize, a handsome hammock, was won by Mr. Adolph Ahrens in a score of 30 out of a possible 30. The second prize, a box of cigars, went to Mr. Hardy Schulken, who made 28 out of a possible 30.

In the contest for ladies the first prize, a very handsome silk umbrella, was won by Miss Clara Bornemann. She made 22 out of 30. The second prize, a pretty hand-bag, went to Miss Lucile Banck, who made 20 out of a possible 30.

During the evening elegant refreshments were served and this feature of the entertainment was enjoyed to the utmost. All cars carried down large crowds for the social, many of them remaining until the last trip of the cars at night.

UP-TO-DATE ESTABLISHMENT

Messrs. W. R. Morrison & Co., Open Shaving Parlors on Market Street

Wilmington has something new and up-to-date in attractive shaving parlors just opened by Messrs. W. R. Morrison & Co., at No. 107 Market street. The establishment has been fitted with the latest and most modern accessories to a first-class establishment of thos kind and the patronage promises to be quite large. Neither money nor pains have been spared to make the place pretty and attractive and the service equal to that of any city in the South.

The parlors are to be in charge of Mr. P. H. Evans, formerly at The Orton, and he will be assisted by four skilled white men in the persons of Messrs. H. Gurganus, Jet Lewis, B. M. Lehue and Jack Cowell. Mr. Morrison will be on charge of the business end of the enterprise and in connection will carry a full line of tobaccos, cigars and all smokers' supplies.

THE FLORENCE DEPOT

Plans Prepared by Messrs. Leitner & Wilkins, of Wilmington.

The plans for the new passenger station of the Atlantic Coast Line at Florence, S. C., have been completed by Messrs. Leitner & Wilkins, architects of this city, and the Florence people are delighted with the prospects of a very handsome structure. The station will cover almost an entire square in its east and west extensions and will be of pressed brick, with Indiana limestone trimmings and tile roof. The second floor will be occupied by the division offices at Florence, and the first floor with sheds will be devoted to the passenger service. It will be steam heated, all the apparatus for this being in the basement. It is understood that work on the new station will begin in the near future.

NEW BUSINESS AT NAVASSA.

Kirby Drew & Co. Purchase Mercantile Interests of Robbins Bros.

Mr. A. S. Kirby, of Phoenix, and Mr. W. P. Drew, a popular young business man of this city, for the past 18 months or more city salesman for Morris Bear & Bro., have purchased the mercantile interest of Messrs. Robbins Brothers at Navassa, and will considerably enlarge and improve the business. Mr. Drew leaves today to take charge of the Navassa store, while Mr. Kirby will continue the business at Phoenix. Both are very popular and efficient young business men and will succeed with the new venture. The two stores will be within two and a half miles of each other, but will be managed independently by Messrs. Kirby and Drew. The style of the firm at Navassa in which Mr. Drew will be interested will be Kirby, Drew & Co.

AROUND THE CITY HALL

No Police Court Yesterday—No Arrests Since Wednesday Morning.

The liquor-drinking population and other frequenters of the police court have been on their good behavior the past two days, not a single arrest having been made since early Wednesday morning. Yesterday's session of the municipal court was set for 10 o'clock but as there were no cases for trial, everybody adjourned to the beach, going down on the 11 o'clock boat.

POLICE EXCURSION

CAROLINA BEACH YESTERDAY

Dinner Given By Capt. Jno. W. Harper to Men of Force and Their Guests—Prize Awards in Athletic and Target Matches.

Save the one unfortunate incident in the accident to the little son of Officer E. R. Chadwick, an account of which is given elsewhere in today's paper, nothing occurred yesterday to mar the perfect success of the annual outing of the Wilmington Police Department at Carolina Beach. The crowd was large—unusually large—thirteen hundred tickets having been taken on the four trips of the steamer Wilmington during the day. The jolly boys in blue, their wives, sweethearts, children and friends were there in overwhelming majority and the day was most pleasantly spent. The weather was ideal for an occasion of the kind and everything passed off most successfully, the committee in charge having acquitted itself with rare credit. The last boat reached the city last night at 12 o'clock and everywhere there were expressions of gratitude from the officers of the force to Capt. John W. Harper for the delightful outing, the perfect success of which could not have been possible without his kindly co-operation.

The first boat left the city at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning and the three decks of the handsome steamer were alive with people bound to the scene of the festivities. The same was true of the 11 o'clock boat and again at 2:30 and 7:30 P. M., the crowds going with never ending volume all day. The crowd was larger, jollier and in better humor than ever before on an occasion of the kind. The excursion was a big success from start to finish. The event of the day aside from the set features of the outing was the annual dinner given by Captain Harper to the men of the force and city officials who were the special guests of the officers. This was served in the restaurant in the pavilion by Mrs. J. W. Baskins and it was a delightful affair in every respect. Around the table were assembled the men of the force, a number of the Aldermen and city officials and ex Mayor A. M. Waddell. Mayor Springer was detained by a pressing business engagement and did not reach the beach until the arrival of the afternoon boat. Captain T. D. Meares presided as toastmaster and after a most delicious meal of the delicacies of the sea and shore had been made and when cigars had been passed around, Captain Meares called upon ex-Mayor Waddell, who responded in a happy address, paying high tribute to the men who compose the police force of Wilmington and felicitating upon the great success of their annual outing. The annual dinner was a delightful affair in every respect.

Not only did the officers and their special guests feast themselves but the wants of everyone were looked after in fine style. Free lunches consisting of sandwiches, lemonade, cake, etc., was served gratis in the pavilion and no one had excuse for being without plenteous refreshment for "the inner man." A band of music was provided during the day an dboth day and night there was dancing by the "sad sea waves" to heart's content.

Colonel C. H. White, assistant city clerk and treasurer; Alderman W. A. French, Jr., and Captain T. D. Meares were the judges of the various contests for the day and performed their work well and to the eminent satisfaction of all. The only contest not finished before night was that on the provided during the day and both day ed 221; Officer G. R. Holt 214; Officer M. C. Gray 213; Officer E. Piner 155. The prizes were four in number in their order as follows; Box cigars by E. S. Capps; set of knives and forks by Alderman Rathjen; Sweater by M. Rosenmann, and one-half dozen half hose by J. W. H. Fuchs. These prizes will be decided when all the scores are handed in to the committee.

The various contests took place immediately after dinner, and were witnessed by a very large crowd along the beach in front of the pavilion and on the shooting range at the gun club traps. The first event was a rifle shoot at 100 yards and the prizes were awarded as follows:

Second prize—Policeman D. W. Coleman, an umbrella from Mr. A. D. Brown.

Third Prize—Policeman Alex Wells, a safety razor from Mr. R. E. Blake.

Fourth Prize—Sergeant C. S. Burnett, a hat from Messrs. J. M. Solky & Co.

The next event was the 30-yard pistol shoot and resulted in first honors as follows:

First Prize—Policeman E. R. Chadwick, an eight-day clock from Mr. W. J. Bradshaw, and a dozen photographs from Mr. F. Titmus.

Second Prize—Policeman W. R. Smith, a cake from Mrs. G. W. Linder.

Third Prize—Policeman E. Piner, an umbrella from Mr. A. Shrier.

Then came the 100-yard dash and in this race Police Chief Williams came out victorious. The result was as follows:

First Prize—Chief N. J. Williams, a pair of shoes from Messrs. Hewlett & Price.

Second Prize—Policeman M. P. Newton, a rocking chair from Messrs. G. D. Phares & Co.

Third Prize — Policeman Leon George, a set of knives and forks from Alderman Martin Rathjen.

Fourth Prize—Policeman E. Piner, half dozen pairs of socks from the A. David Company.

The chicken striking contest was the most interesting of the events of the day, and created much amusement. The prizes were awarded as follows:

First Prize—Policeman J. S. Lane, umbrella from I. Shrier.

Second Prize—Policeman J. H. Dew, hat from L. W. Davis.

SMALL BOY IS INJURED

James Chadwick, ten years old, a son of Policeman and Mrs. E. R. Chadwick, living near Seventh and Harnett streets, was painfully if not fatally injured, yesterday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock at Carolina Beach during the police excursion. The train was preparing to leave the Beach for the pier to connect with the evening trip of the steamer, and was backing up to the hotel steps for the crowd that expected to board the cars from there. The little fellow, out for a day's amusement, was following the train and amusing himself by jumping on and off the moving car. As the steps of the hotel were approached the boy in some way fell and was caught between the running board on the side of the car and the hotel steps. He was rolled between the two as if he were a pencil between the palms of one's hands. The large number of people on the beach saw the accident and gave the alarm so that the car was stopped in short order, but not before the boy was fearfully crushed in the back and stomach. Officer E. H. Dement, Sergeant C. S. Burnett and Constable W. B. Savage were the first to reach the boy and they tore out one of the planks binding the boy by sheer physical force while some one lifted the little sufferer into the hotel, where Dr. C. T. Harper attended him. Dr. Harper gave the boy all the relief possible, and does not think wounds are fatal, but, of course, cannot tell when internal injuries will develop.

It was too late to bring the lad up on the boat reaching here at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening, but he was brought up last night, and taken out to the hospital, where he is being given every attention by Dr. Harper and the hospital surgeons. The father of the boy had the sympathy of everyone at the Beach, the accident occurring on a day when all members of the force were out with their families and friends for a day of pleasure. Only last Summer Officer Chadwick lost a little son by drowning at or near Hilton Park.

Annual Inventory Sale.

For the past five years the Polvogt Company, North Front street, have held each season an annual inventory sale. At this time of the year just before they begin to measure and count stock the Polvogt people conduct this sale and convert merchandise into cash rather than to carry stock even the store is now decorated for this annual sale which will begin on Monday of the coming week and last ten days. Besides giving greatly reduced prices the store during this sale will give double trading stamps to all who make cash purchases. In Sunday's paper will appear a large page advertisement giving full partoculars of the great offerings during this sale.

Feature Films at Academy.

The Academy Five-Cent Theatre will have a change of all new films today and the offering will be found quite attractive. In the list are "History of a Pair of Trousers," a comic divertisement; "The Invisible Men," a startling optical illusion; "Cake Walk in Our Alley," a juvenile feature; "Making Champagne," a history of a great industry in all of its interesting stages, and "Looking for Lodging," a feature film. The house is cooled by electric fans and illustrated songs are presented as an additional attraction to the ordinary moving picture show.

BONDED WAREHOUSE

MEETING IN COURT HOUSE

President C. C. Moore and Chairman A. J. McKinnon, of Executive Committee of Southern Cotton Association, Present.

There was much disappointment among business men last night that Hon. E. D. Smith, General Organizer of the Southern Cotton Association, did not reach the city and speak to them at the Court House on the bonded warehouse plan, as had been expected. Mr. Smith was to have joined President C. C. Moore and Mr. A. J. McKinnon, chairman of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Division, here but he failed to do so and the fact that no word was received from him is construed to mean that there was some misunderstanding as to the date.

President Moore and Mr. McKinnon arrived yesterday afternoon on the Seaboard Air Line train from Maxton and Lumberton, and were heard with much interest by a goodly number of business men at the Court House. This was in spite of several counter attractions at both beaches and the hot, sultry weather.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 9 o'clock by President J. A. Taylor, of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, who regretted the absence of Mr. Smith and pleasantly introduced. Mr. McKinnon, laying emphasis on the importance of the movement championed by the distinguished visitors.

Mr. McKinnon thanked Mr. Taylor for his kindly references and spoke conversationally but earnestly in behalf of the great cause of the cotton grower in the South. The abolition of the bucket shop in several of the Southern States was spoken of as one of the great achievements of the Association, and the speaker paid deserved tribute to its president, Harvie Jordan. Mr. McKinnon was given close attention and received applause at the conclusion of his remarks, which he said were at random and in no wise prepared.

Mr. Taylor prefaced an introduction of Mr. Moore with a discussion of the cotton situation according to his personal view, making a plea for more care in preparing the staple for market and more intelligence in marketing the product. The speaker paid a high tribute to Mr. Moore in presenting him to the audience.

Mr. Moore is well known and popular in Wilmington. His approach to the speaker's table was greeted with enthusiastic applause. He came to his subject, he said, with trepidation, because it was one of such great importance. He had so much hoped to have present Mr. Smith, who was nearer equal to the occasion. The bonded warehouse plan he regarded as of more importance even than the proposition to make Wilmington a great water gateway, as necessary as was the latter project, not only to the city, but to the State. Mr. Moore began with the inception of the Southern Cotton Association and told of the men who were behind this movement, fraught with so much importance to the South. He showed that these men were not idealists or sentimentalists; they were all business men and were inspired by a desire to do their country good.

Mr. Moore briefly explained the holding company plan and said it called for the co-operation of the intelligent business man. He had just returned from five points in Robeson county at each of which a committee of good citizens was in charge of the organization of holding companies, but they all wanted to know what Wilmington was going to do. The idea was to hold the staple in the interior for a satisfactory price if possible; if not, to stop the cotton at the ports. It would require half a million dollars to afford adequate protection. He invited questions in regard to the movement.

Mr. Taylor asked if the movement for holding companies was not general, would it be effective?

Mr. Moore explained that the movement would be general and entirely effective, and told of the efforts being made throughout the South. Any curtailment of the crop would result in advancing prices, and moreover these bonded warehouses would be a very paying investment for the stockholders.

Mr. Taylor further questioned Mr. Moore as to the effect if prices were advanced by the spinners to the maximum, what would be the need of the capital for the warehouse.

Mr. Moore explained that the charter would provide for this emergency, and the affairs of the institution would be in the hands of business men, who would be well able to take care of such an emergency.

Mr. Moore brought along his package of "dry goods samples," and illustrated the relative value of cotton as between the raw product and the

"STILL UNEXPLAINED."

The Columbia State said a few days ago in an editorial concerning the complaint of the Raleigh Evening Times and The Star that Wilmington did not figure in Col. E. J. Watson's article on the important South Atlantic Ports:

"The Raleigh Evening Times and the Wilmington Morning Star in extended comment on The State's 'Export Edition,' seem somewhat concerned that Wilmington is left out of the picture; 'there is no reason,' says The Star, 'why Wilmington should have been overlooked or ignored.' No reason, perhaps, neighbor, except that this was Charleston's turn at the bat and The State was particularly desirous that the hits should be bunched in that inning. When Wilmington gets real deep water or becomes a South Carolina town The State will be delighted to take conspicuous notice of either or both events. Meanwhile we must be excused for pulling real hard for trade for Charleston."

The Raleigh Evening Times, using the caption which we quote at the head of this column, gets back at The State in this exceedingly clever fashion:

"As far as we are concerned, The State is excusable, and we never thought otherwise. Together with many other North Carolina papers, we thought the enterprise so very excusable that we gave it favorable advance notice upon receipt of the prospectus from the editor of The State. We were glad to do this, and never for a moment expected that the paper at the South Carolina capital would boost our seaport of Wilmington, the altruistic age not being upon the world yet.

"As everyone who read our editorial on the subject is obliged to know, our criticism was not of the Columbia State, but of the article by the State Commissioner of Agriculture, Commerce and Immigration, E. J. Watson, in which he printed a table to show the mileage from various points in the country to the principal ports. The ports he put in his table were New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk and Charleston, failing to include Wilmington among the principal ports with Norfolk and Charleston in face of the facts that Wilmington's exports amount to many times those of Charleston and largely exceed the exports of Norfolk and Portsmouth combined, and that her import duties at least equal those of Charleston or Norfolk.

"It is up to Commissioner Watson, if he chooses to explain, why the unaccountable omission was allowed. We did not expect The State to take up the cudgels for Mr. Watson, for we did not presume The State became responsible for what was in the signed articles in its big export edition.

"However, since The State has taken it up, we respectfully beg to remind that learned, astute and enterprising sheet that seaports are measured by the amount of their exports and imports, not by the depth of water in their harbors. We know of places where the water is of almost unfathomed depth that are not seaports at all. Also we hope we may be permitted to say that we did not wait until Charleston became a North Carolina town to take notice, conspicuous or obscure, or her laudable advertising efforts."

The Times has thus reminded The State that we heap coals of fire on the head of Charleston. When The Star realized that Wilmington was too late in the movement to be made an immigrant station, it pulled for Charleston. The Star also expressed gratification when Charleston secured that navy yard. It has been only a few days ago that The Star took pride in mentioning that the official who inspected the Charleston navy yard some days ago spoke of it in a flattering manner in his report at Washington. We cannot detract from the importance of either Charleston or Wilmington by attempting to ignore them. Both have their advantages, and neither have gotten from Congress what they deserved to build up their commerce. So far as The Star is concerned we would like to see every Southern port developed and we hope they will be looked after by Congress in proportion to their opportunities to develop the commerce of this country—the United States—not the South particularly. Congress will fail to do its duty if it does not do everything in its power to develop a commerce that is simply waiting for deep water facilities at our ports.

ELOQUENT WILMINGTON FACTS.

The above is the title used by the Charlotte Observer to speak of an appreciated article in the Newbern Journal concerning Wilmington's deep water movement. Says our esteemed Charlotte contemporary:

"Observing that thirty feet from Wilmington to the sea would place North Carolina safely among the States in a strong position to compete for the great trade opportunities which, the Panama canal will open and enable every factory in this State to reach the world's markets on fair terms, The Newbern Journal narrows down its argument to these telling facts:

"'The city of Wilmington is the one seaport of North Carolina. At present it is accessible to most classes of seagoing vessels. But this is not enough. The business interests of Wilmington, which are those of the whole State, seek a water depth from city dock to the open Atlantic ocean, of thirty feet. Two questions arise when such a demand is made: First, can such a depth be secured? The answer to this is in the affirmative, and there appears no controversy on this point. The second question would be: Do present and future commercial conditions warrant the expenditure of money to secure this thirty-foot depth? To answer this, a few figures as to present exports and comparisons. At the close of the fiscal year 1906 Wilmington exports are shown to be $18,466,000, with the probability that 1907 will show over $20,000,000. Against this just as a comparison, for 1906, Norfolk and Portsmouth had exports valued at $12,000,000, and Charleston, S. C., about $670,000.'

"These facts are eloquent. Let's all in North Carolina get together and push."

The Star recently gave these statistics at some length, taken from the lately issued "Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance of the United States," compiled by the Department of Commerce and Labor at Washington. They show for themselves, and the enthusiasm of the Journal and the Observer over the showing made for North Carolina's port is extremely pleasing.

—That President Roosevelt may reconsider his determination not to run again for the presidency is the opinion of Col. John Temple Graves, who recently held a conference with the President at Oyster Bay. The President is said to have told Col. Graves at Jamestown on Georgia Day: "If I could be positively assured of the electoral vote of a single Southern State, I would be glad to be a candidate for the presidency next year." It was this declaration, according to the story, that caused Col. Graves to go to Oyster Bay, for the purpose of urging the President to run again. It does not appear that Col. Graves was authorized to promise the electoral vote of any Southern State for the Republican ticket, nor that he succeeded in obtaining the President's promise.—Savannah News.

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat, Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. Trial bottle free.

He Fired the Stick.

"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns, Etc., by R. R. Bellamy, druggist, 25s.

There is no decided change in the condition of Bishop Capers, according to a bulletin from Cedar Mountain, N. C

The battleships Iowa, Maine, Indiana and Minnesota sailed yesterday from Hampton Roads, for a cruise off the coast and practice. No significance is attached to their movements, although suddenly made.

TWINKLINGS.

—Young Husband—I told the governor Ithought it would be wise if we started housekeeping at once. Young Wife—And did he indorse the opinion? Young Husband—Oh, yes, he indorsed the opinion all right.—Town and Country.

—"Which do you prefer," said the artistic young woman, "music or poetry?" Poetry," answered Miss Cayenne. "You can keep poetry shut up in a book. You don't have to listen to it unless you choose."—Washington Star.

—Mr. Jagway, who had come home at a late hour, was groping his way toward the foot of the stairs. "There's jus' twice as many chairs in this hallway as there ought t' be?" he muttered. "My eyes might fool me on that proposition, to' course, but when I stumble 'gainst 'em, by George, I know they're there?"—Chicago Tribune.

—The Rural Critic: "Who were all those young chaps with guitars and mandolins?" asked the old farmer who had spent the night in the big city hotel. "Oh, that was a college glee club," replied the clerk. "Quite a string team, too." "String team, eh?" "Oh, yes; as they all played string instruments it was a string team." "Thought so, by heck! They made more noise than my sring team of mules when they all start braying for rain."—Chicago News.

IN WRECKS AT SEA.

The Way Men Act When They Lose Their Heads and Nerve.

What has most struck me in my many experiences of shipwrecks has been the strangely diverse ways in which the passengers acquit themselves under intense excitement and panic, said a lifeboat man to the writer.

Women cry, faint and cling to each other, but are least trouble. Men often act very strangely. I remember one man throwing into the lifeboat a heavy trunk which he wanted to save, but which we promptly heaved overboard.

Some men become quite panic stricken. I've seen strong men, probably brave enough in other cases, fighting fiercely for the life buoys and thrusting the women and children aside in frantic endeavors to leap into the boat first; yet, strangely enough, one man who thus disgraced himself has since obtained the Royal Humane society's medal for saving life at sea, thrice volunteering with a scratch crew in aid of a distressed vessel.

I've known others who became so stupefied with fright as to resist all attempts at rescuing them, begging to be left to die and having to be forcibly thrown into the lifeboat. Some persons frequently become half demented, and I've known several cases where they have in a frenzy committed suicide by positively jumping headlong into the sea and drowning themselves, and one man to insure his sinking filled his pockets with coal.

Some years ago another passenger, hearing the ship had struck, went and drowned himself in the bathroom, anticipating his fate, as it were.

I remember another case where a passenger hanged himself in his cabin just as the lifeboat arrived.—London Tit-Bits.

Gent and Gemman.

This slang word seems to have come in at first as a mere written contraction. I have found the word laygents in law reports of the seventeenth century, particularly those of Popham and of Davis. In Sir John Northcote's "Note Book," Dec. 2, 1640, Lord Gray is described as saying of one Hallford or Holford "that he is no gent; that in memory of divers he kept hogs." The cognate word gemman can be traced about a century earlier.—London Notes and Queries.

A French Joke.

Here is a French joke that is rather English in character: The Marquis de Favieres, notorious for his impecuniosity, called on a man of means named Barnard and said:

"Monsieur, I am going to astonish you. I am the Marquis de Favieres. I do not know you, and I come to borrow 500 louis."

"Monsieur," Barnard replied, "I am going to astonish you much more. I know you, and I am going to lend them."—Lippincott's Magazine.

All by Accident Too.

George—Well, life is worth living, after all. Jack—What's happened? George—I went to a railway station to see my sister off, and by some chance Harry Hansom was there to see his sister off, and in the rush and noise and confusion we got mixed, and I hugged his sister and he hugged mine.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

From those I trust God guard me, from those I mistrust I will guard myself.—Italian Proverb.

AN OLD STAGE LINE.

It Ran From Kansas to California In Thirty-five Days.

"Atchison to California in thirty-five days; fare, only $200 in gold."

This was the heading of an old handbill, yellow with age, which a traveler laid upon the counter in a railway ticket office the other day. It was an advertisement of a line of stagecoaches that ran from Atchison, Kan., to San Francisco during the gold excitement of years ago.

"People seldom stop to think what their poor ancestors had to put up with in the old days," the man said. He was comparing the old time table with a modern railway time table, which told of the luxuries one could have by traveling on that road, no dust, no jarring and all other disagreeable features eliminated.

The old time table was a double sheet of paper, torn and yellow with age. It was issued by the Atchison and California stagecoach line in 1857. The inducements it held forth were in strange contrast with those of the modern railroad advertisement. The stagecoach line advertised that it had recently refurnished the entire "road" with absolutely new wagonettes, and it told what kind of coaches they were, how the springs were made and of what strength they were. It even said that the coaches were painted in the "best manner possible." The horses that drew the coaches were described, too, as the best.

An inducement that was held out on the time table to prospective passengers was a stop over privilege.

"Passengers who had paid their entire fare from Atchison or other points to their destination," the paper said, "may register with our agents. A stop over privilege is then given for any place on the road."

The time of the stop over was unlimited. The time table provided that a passenger might resume the journey whenever there was an empty seat in the stagecoach.

"We make quicker time to California than any other stagecoach line and at a cheaper rate," the pamphlet stated. It went on to say that for $200 a person could ride all the way from Atchison, Kan., to the gold fields of California.

"The distance is 1,913 miles," was stated on the time table, "the longest distance ever attempted by a stagecoach line. Atchison to California in thirty-five days."

A boast was made that there were twelve telegraph stations on the road to California and that eating places had been established along the road where good meals could be had at the nominal price of $3. Every passenger was allowed twenty-five pounds of baggage, consisting of wearing apparel and other necessary baggage. All over that amount must be paid for at a rate of 50 cents a pound.

It was advertised that the [illegible] the return trip was very great on account of the amount of gold dust and nuggets being brought back from California. The company employed only the bravest men, fully armed all the time. But it declined to carry gold dust unless paid for at the rate of $3 a pound. The company refused to be held responsible for the loss of the gold dust by robbers, Indians or other means.

The pamphlet also advertised a fast freight line between Atchison and Denver. The round trip was made in the short space of twenty days. To ship by this method all merchandise had to be wrapped in waterproof packages. A package weighing ten pounds could be sent by that route for $5. All over that weight was sent at the reduced rate of $2 for five pounds.

In its advertisement for passengers to California the pamphlet, as stated before, allowed every passenger twenty-five pounds of baggage. However, it advised that as many persons wished to take more baggage than the weight limit it would be safer to send it to California by sea.

"And to think that we can get on a train tonight and be in Denver tomorrow," the railroad man said as he compared the time tables.—Kansas City Star.

Mistook Scripture For Science.

They were passing one of the Fifth avenue churches when the bulletin board caught her eye. "The Rev. Dr. —— will speak this evening on Deuteronomy." She stopped short and carefully read it a second time. "Well," she snapped, "I wish these preachers would stick to the Bible and let science alone. I don't believe Dr. —— knows any more about Denteronomy or astronomy or any other onomy than I do."—New York Telegram.

Used to It.

After asking a great many questions of a lady a barrister felt that some apology was necessary, so he remarked, "I really hope I don't annoy you with all these questions?"

"Not at all," answered the lady quietly. "I'm used to it. I have a six-year-old son."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Nice Distinction.

I wonder if any of these purists could solve for me a problem which has long been worrying me. To what particular altitude must an individual attain before his murder is described as assassination? This is a matter that ought to be cleared up.—London Tatler.

Birds' Wages.

In the garden there are a thousand small offenders that he who tills the soil for pleasure would willingly forgive. If it be granted that the thrush and the blackbird steal a certain amount of fruit, still their presence is so beautiful and their song so sweet that what they take may gladly be accorded as wages.—Country Life.

LOCAL DOTS.

—A handsome electric sign was yesterday placed in front of The Colonial Inn, on Third and Market streets.

—Marriage license was issued yesterday for the marriage of Eugene Harriss, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harriss, of this city, and Ella A. Autrey, daughter of Mrs. G. J. Workman, of Raleigh, N. C.

—V. L. Manus, an excursionist, charged with being disorderly at Lumina Wednesday night, was given trial before Justice Furlong yesterday and taxed with the costs.

—S. F. Highsmith was yesterday granted a building permit to add two rooms to two-story residence on Grace between Seventh and Eighth streets, to cost $50.

—Assistant State Insurance Commissioner W. A. Scott, of Raleigh, is in the city on official business. He was formerly chief of police of Greensboro, and has many friends in Wilmington who were pleased to greet him yesterday.

—Mr. P. L. Cantwell has disposed of his interest in the Southern Pressing Club, Smith Building, to Mr. Willie Watters and the business will be conducted in the future under the firm name of Smith & Watters.

—The Mechanics' Home Association announced that very soon it will open its 34th series of stock and that subscriptions may be made now. It is one of Wilmington's most progressive building and loan associations and is prepared to make loans on good security.

—The usual preparations are being made for a "big" fourth of July celebration at Wrightsville Beach. One of the features will be the annual regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club, official notice of which is given elsewhere in today's paper.

—Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schrader, No. 303 North Fourth street, have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their infant son, Theodore, Jr., aged five months, which occurred yesterday. The funeral will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the residence and the interment will be in Bellevue.

—The County Commissioners met yesterday and passed on the sixty applications for renewal of liquor licenses as previously passed by the Board of Aldermen. All were granted and the licenses may be secured today by applying at the sheriff's office and paying the amount required. The application of J. F. Mason to retail liquor at Wrightsville Sound was not approved, as saloons at resorts are required to be in connection with resort hotels. The hotel named in the application was Atlantic View, but there was no record that the Atlantic View paid a hotel license as required by the State law and the application was held over.

Coming again to the question of the bonded warehouses Mr. Moore said Baltimore, Norfolk, Savannah, Birmingham and other ports were already organizing holding companies and he wanted Wilmington to do likewise.

Mr. Cooper spoke briefly at the conclusion of Mr. Moore's remarks, saying that he thought half a million was a little overestimated, but he thought Wilmington would do her part. He suggested that $100,000 would be sufficient to hold the cotton at Wilmington and personally said he would take one or two thousand dollars stock in such an enterprise. The banks were very lenient in their loans on cotton and an enterprise could be very well financed with the capital named.

The discussion then took an informal turn and various persons present questioned Mr. Moore in regard to particular phases of the subject. Mr. Taylor favored the natural channel of continuing the educational work of the Association; that is, to educate the grower to hold the cotton himself. This, he thought, was the most practicable plan.

Further effort in the warehouse movement will probably be taken up privately. The success of the proposition here seems doubtful, regardless of the merits of the case.

Upon motion of Mr. L. B. Rogers, the chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of five to further investigate the proposition and determine what action will be taken. The committee is composed of Messrs. W. B. Cooper, Wm. E. Springer, W. M. Cumming, S. P. McNair and Wm. Gilchrist.

RAILROAD WORK SUSPENDED.

Chesapeake & Ohio Can't Get Money to Make Improvements.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Richmond, Va., June 27.—C. D. Langhorne, the Virginia contractor, J. C. Carpenter & Co., and the Matthews-Curtis Company, of Clifton Forge, have been ordered to quit their construction work in connection with the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company on July 1. The Chesapeake & Ohio have been doing considerable tracking, lowering of grades and straightening curves. The reason assigned for discontinuing this work is that further money would have to be raised for its continuance and in the conditions of the market at this time it would not be desirable to float new securities. Two thousand men are affected.

CARD GAMES.

The Earliest Played in England Were Imported From Spain.

Spain is generally believed to have sent us our first card games. "El hombre," or "the man," corrupted by us into "ombre," was probably our earliest card game in England, and that must have come from Spain. Also the oldest packs of cards found in England show Spanish symbols, such as cupus, maces and swords. Another popular English card game in the sixteenth century was trump, clearly a form of the Spanish game triumfo.

Cards could be bought in 1545 for twopence a pack. These were very wretched specimens and most inferior to those produced by the Cardmakers' company of London, in which Charles L created a monopoly, with the financial genius of his race, by buying them up cheap and selling them at a high price. In this he was a more open rogue perhaps than his father, who forbade card playing in Scotland and indulged in it himself at every opportunity.

Cards have always been a royal game. Queen Elizabeth played cards and lost her temper over them frequently. She was no Anne of Austria, to play "like a queen without passion of greed or gain." In her reign was commanded to be played "at Wyndsore a Comedie or Morral devised on a game of the cardes," which resulted in the performance by the children of her majesty's chapel of. "Alexander and Campaspe," in which the pretty lines occur:

Cupid and Campaspe played
At cards for kisses. Cupid paid.

LEARNING TO SHOOT.

A Simple Rifle Target and the Way to Practice.

The first moving target that I would recommend is one that is simplicity itself and yet, with the assistance of a gentle sloping hill and a friend to take turns with you, will be of great value and benefit. One of the most successful deer hunters I know trained this way, and you will readily see the good points of this practice on trial of it. Secure half a dozen barrel heads for your partner. Have him take a position at the top of the hill and roll these heads down the slope diagonally. At first it will be best to select a fairly smooth slope and have the targets rolled down at a medium rate. At fifty to seventy-five yards take your position, according to your gun and ammunition. If it is a 22, a somewhat smaller target might be used at a little shorter distance. At your signal one of these targets is started on its journeys. As it starts bring the gun to the shoulder, taking aim and swinging with the moving object. Always aim to hit the center of the object. You will find that the eye naturally seeks the center, just as it is nature for one to see the front sight through the center of the peep. Do not attempt to hold your gun at a point the target will pass and try to pull the trigger while it passes, but pull when the aim has been secured, just as when firing at a stationary object.—Outer's Book.

Where the "Brave" Excelled.

Bloodthirsty, vindictive, treacherous, crafty, scornful of suffering, brave unto death when at bay, more cunning than the fox and of infinite patience on the trail, the Indian has proved more than a match for the whites in the jungle. It is certain that more whites than savages have perished in forest fighting. But in a set battle the red man is without steadfastness and perseverance. The least reverse disheartens him. After the first mad rush his purpose wanes, and the slightest check is apt to dispirit his capricious mind.—Lynn Tew Sprague in Outing Magazine.

His Ancestors.

An Irish gentleman was recently attended by an eminent London physician, who, pausing and looking at him with an inquiring glance, said:

"I should like to know, sir, if your family have been long lived?"

"Long lived, is it?" responded the patient thoughtfully. "Well, doctor, I'll just tell you how it is. Our family is a west of Ireland family, and the age of my ancestors depended entirely on the judge and jury who tried them."—Strand Magazine.

Embarrassing.

Bobson—You look all broken up, old man. What's the matter?

Craik—I called on Miss Pruyn last night, and no sooner had I entered the parlor than her mother appeared and demanded to know my intentions.

"That must have been rather embarrassing."

"Yes, but that was not the worst. Just as the old lady finished speaking Miss Pruyn shouted down the stairs, 'Mamma, mamma, he isn't the one!'"—London Tit-Bits.

Significant Silence.

"What has become of your son, the young inventor, who used to advance such startling theories?" asked a friendly man of an old negro known to the Washington Star. "I never hear of him any more."

"No, sah," replied the shrewd father, "he's re'lly inventing something now."

One Better.

First Child—Our baby can say "Papa." Second Child (with lofty superiority)—Our parrot can say "papa" and papa's swear words too.—Los Angeles Herald.

Executive Ability.

Little James—Father, what is executive ability? His father—The faculty of earning your bread by the sweat of other people's brows, my son.

MONKEY HELPED TO FISH.

Accompanied His Master and Was Valuable In Landing Catches.

For some years I lived in a small town not far from Frome, and, being very fond of fishing, I was able to indulge in my favorite pastime very often, as the little river abounded in trout, and I had permission to fish about eight miles of it.

The only boat on the lake belonged to a Captain C., who rented a large house with grounds coming down to the lake, and he very kindly allowed me the use of the boat at all times. The captain was perhaps the finest fly fisherman I have ever seen, an enthusiast at the sport, and was often to be seen in the boat, his page boy rowing him about.

The other occupant of the boat was invariably a monkey that sat stolidly in the stern sheets, but when the captain hooked a fish Jocko was all activity, dancing about the boat in a most excited manner, and as soon as the captain had drawn the fish near enough the monkey, holding on to the gunwale with one hand, would seize the fish with the other, throw it into the boat and then resume his usual seat.

I never saw the monkey lose a fish, and Captain C. told me that he very rarely did miss one. He never took a landing net with him when the monkey accompanied him.—London Field.

Chicago Court Issues Subpoenaes for Standard Oil Officers.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, June 27.—Subpeonas were today issued in the United States District Court, returnable July 6th for the leading officers of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Subpeonaes were also issued for the officers of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

The officials of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, for whom summans have been issued are John D. Rockefeller, president; William Rockefeller; John D. Archbold and Henry H. Rogers, vice presidents; W. H. Tilford, treasurer; C. M. Pratt, secretary; William P. Howe, assistant treasurer, and Charles T. White, assistant secretary.

The Standard Oil Company was indicated in the Federal Court an the charge of using illegal freight rates tendered to it by the Chicago and Alton Railroad and after a long trial was found guilty on 1,462 counts of the indictment. A maximum fine of $20,000 is allowed on each count of the indictment, making a total possible fine against the company of $29,240,000. Before passing sentence on the company, Judge Landis announced that it was his custom to proportion the fine according to the financial condition of the person or corporation convivted, and asked for specific information regarding the financial condition of the Standard Oil Company This information he was unable to obtain up to date and the subpoenaes issued today were the consequence.

SOUTH CAROLINA DAY.

Governor Ansel and 7,000 State Troops at Jamestown Exposition.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., June 27.—Governor Ansel, of South Carolina, his family and staff, the entire South Carolina State Jamestown Commission, the Second regiment of infantry of South Carolina National Guard, under Col. Henry T. Thompson, 700 strong, and a large party of South Carolina State officials, members of the Legislature, arrived today for South Carolina Day celebration at Jamestown Exposition tomorrow. Governor Ansel at the Exposition today, presented in person the diplomas to this year's graduates of the South Carolina (Citadel) Military Institute, now in camp at the Exposition. This evening Governor Ansel was tendered a reception at the Virginia Club in Norfolk by Lieutenant Commander Victor Blue, United States Marine Hospital service. A notable feature in connection with the South Carolina Day celebration tomorrow will be the presence of the governors of three States at a reception at a reception to be given in the Virginia State building in honor of the visiting South Carolinans. These will be Governor Ansel, of South Carolina, Governor Warfield, of Maryland and Governor Swanson, of Virginia.

VICTIMS OF PINE BEACH FIRE.

Remains of Musician Found in Ruins Yesterday—Others Missing.

Norfolk, Va., June 27.—The body of Charles Fulbert, a musician, who had been playing at different resorts about Pine Beach, was found in the ruins of the burned Madison Hotel there today. Fulbert was 30 years of age and came from Bridgeport, Conn. His wife is an actress and has been summoned from San Antonio, Tex. Fulbert is declared to have been asleep when effort was made to awaken him when the fire broke out yesterday morning. He could not be aroused and was burned in bed. The body was identified by a double row of teeth. This makes the second known fatality in the Pine Beach fire, the other being the negro bootblack, Larry Harris. Several persons are reported missing.

The losses by the Pine Beach fire as compiled today by conservative estimates upon a canvass of losses totals, $411,800. The Arcade Hotel, the heaviest loss, is placed at $175,000. The other losses run from $300 to $25,000.

Bridgeport, Conn., June 27.—Nothing is known in this city of Musician Charles Fulbert, whose body was found in the ruins of a Norfolk, Va., fire today. No person of that name is known to have lived in this city during the past ten years.

BALTIMORE DAY EVENT.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., June 27.—Hundreds of Baltimoreans and Marylanders in general, bedecked with badges of yellow and black, the colors of the Oriole, attended the Baltimore Day celebration at the Jamestown Exposition today. The dedication of the handsome little structure on the Exposition grounds, erected by the merchants of Baltimore, was the chief feature of the day. The ceremonies participated in by both Governor Warfield, of Maryland, and Mayor Mahook, of Baltimore, were held on the veranda of the building.

Mayor Mahook and Governor Warfield, in their addresses, spoke of the close ties between Virginia and Maryland, and called on the people of the latter State to join with Virginia in making the Jamestown Exposition a great success.

NEGROES ARE VIOLENT.

Roosevelt, Tillman, Vardeman and Tom Dixon Denounced.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Baltimore, Md., June 27.—The second sessions of the annual meeting of the Afro-American Council was held today and again the various speakers indulged in attacks, more or less violent, upon President Roosevelt, the Secretary of War and others. Senator Tillman, Governor aVrdaman and Rev. Thomas Dixon, were severely arraigned. It was proposed to attempt to raise a fund of $1,000,000 with which to fight the ends favored by the council and some of the speakers advised organizing the negro vote in the doubtful Congressional districts and forcing the Republican candidate to side with them in their fight against lynch and Jim Crow laws.

500 CHINESE LOST LIVES

Terrible Holocaust in Theatre at Hong Kong.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Victorio, B. C., June 27.—A horrible holocaust is reported in mail advices from Hong Kong, where 500 Chinese of the audience of a Chinese theatre and ten of the actors were burned to death when the native theatre was destroyed by fire. The flames spread rapidly and the building collapsed, blocking the entrance with burning debris. The origin of the fire is said to have been due to the igniting of explosives concealed under the floor of the theatre, the fire following the explosion.

SAD SUICIDE AT DURHAM.

Trinity Graduate Shot Himself in a Fit of Despondency.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Durham, N. C., June 27.—William M. Smith, captain and shortstop of Trinity College baseball team the past two years, committed suicide at noon today by placing a pistol against his temple and firing. Smith graduated from Trinity College last year and this year took the degree of master of arts. He afterward entered the employment of the American Tobacco Company as an inspector. His nervous system broke down and he thought he was a failure at the business.

WARM WIRELETS.

The Britt-Nelson fight, which was scheduled at San Francisco for July 3, was postponed Wednesday night until July 31. A reason given for the postponement is the inability of Nelson to continue training, owing to an abscess in his ear.

President Roosevelt has advised United States District Attorney Thomas Lee Moore, that he will be unable to accept the invitation extended him to address the irginia, State Farmers' Institute, which meets at Roanoke, Va., in August.

James Cornelius, the Canton wife murderer who was reprieved three times by Governor Harris, was electrocuted in the annex at the penitentiary at 12:10 this (Friday) morning. Cornelius killed his wife September 17, 1906, by crushing her skull with a window weight. She had sued for divorce.

Vice President J. M. Culp, of the Southern Railway Company, stated, in Washington yesterday, in answer to inquiry, that there is no foundation for the published rumor that there will be a change in the office of passenger traffic manager and general passenger agent of that company on July 12. He announced that no change in either of these offices is contemplated.

Wednesday night's fire at Christianburg, Va., destroyed the foundry of the Christiansburg Chilled Plow and Machine Company. Some 400,000 feet of lumber, the Lowery Sale Stable, and the store of J. S. Childress and two other small buildings. Less on foundry $10,000, with no insurance. Childress' loss $8,000, insurance $4,500. The total loss is estimated at $50,000.

THREE CONVICTS HANGED.

Killed Penitentiary Guard in Attempt to Escape.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Jefferson City, Mo., June 27.—Harry Vaughan and Edward Raymond, convicts senteneed to the penitentiary from St. Louis and George Ryan, a convict sentenced from Kansas City, were hanged in the county jail here this morning for the killing of Prison Guard John Clay during a concerted attempt to escape from the penitentiary. All three died from strangulation. The physicians in attendance pronounced Vaughan dead in 16 3-4 minutes after the trap was sprung; Ryan was dead in 12 1-2 minutes and Raymond in 11 3-4 minutes. About 250 persons witnessed the execution.

ATTEMPT TO DAMAGE SOUTH.

Hamburg-American Steamship Line Nails a Lie.

New Orleans, June 27.—Secretary Tresevant, of the New Orleans progressive union, today received from the offices of the Hamburg-American Steamship Line in New York, a denial of the report recently published that emigration from Germany to the Southern States would not be encouraged by that line on account of the bad treatment of immigrants in the South. The company officials said that they did not believe the statements to this effect, which were credited to their agent at Berlin, had been made.

Plans have been made to hold a general convention in New Orleans for the purpose of refuting these alleged charges. Whether this convention will be held is a matter that will be decided next Monday.

"AFTER-IMAGES."

Many Delusions Intimately Related to This Unfamiliar Law.

There are two kinds of light waves emitted from all objects, color and white waves. Whenever a source of light, as the sun, strikes an object, part of that light is absorbed and part reflected—thrown back. The latter represents such object's "luminosity." The color blind are never blind to this form of light. A mirror reflects almost all the light that falls upon it. Polished silver reflects 92 per cent of perpendicular rays. Broken surfaces split up such light and so appear dark. The more luminous an object the more intense is its effect upon the retina, just as two horns affect the ear more keenly than one. The more intense or stimulating a light the quicker is the retina exhausted. It becomes temporarily paralyzed in the cones of such a color. Look at the sun, then look away, and you will still see the sun, but its color appears a pale blue, which is the farthest contrast to the yellow-orange of the sun. It is the complementary color. The light of the sun is so intense that it quickly exhausts the yellow-orange cones, leaving those farthest from it (blue, the "complementary" of yellow) least exhausted; hence this after-image of the sun looks blue, actually a pale greenish blue.

A mother was sewing a scarlet gown held in the sunlight by the window. Turning to her child, playing on the floor, she shrieked, believing it was dying. She saw no red in its face, which made it appear corpselike. Visions, witch making, religious hysteria, pseudo insanity and the attribution of supernatural power are intimately related to this unappreciated law of "after-images."—Edward A. Ayers in Century.

DOPING A RACE HORSE.

The Way the Potent Drug Affects the Unfortunate Animal.

"No one is likely to be caught in the act of doping a horse," said a prominent veterinarian the other day, "because the dose given is so small that it can be administered under the very eyes of the officials, with little if any danger of detection, and, besides, it is given so long before the race that the horses are not then likely to be under surveillance. If a horse is to race at 3 o'clock he gets a two grain powder on his tongue in a darkened stall at 1 o'clock. The drug takes effect in about thirty minutes, and the animal breaks out into a sweat. He is rubbed down, cooled out and done up as if he had come in from morning work. Every effort is made to keep him quiet until post time, but he very often breaks out again and is again cooled out. The doped horse never takes any warming up work, and this fact affords the best means I know of for finding him out. He is moved slowly to the starting point, great care being taken to prevent him from becoming excited until the flag is dropped. Then a kick and a dig do the work, and in an instant the full force of the dope is felt, stimulating the animal to run the race of his life.

"After the race an antidote is usually given, but it is sometimes well along in the night before the excited horse regains his normal condition. The strain on the nervous system is terrific. For this reason dope horses have short careers, as a rule, and are of little value for breeding purposes."—Kansas City Independent

—Mr. Turnbull of the Rowland Lumber Company at Bowden, has put in the telephone system and uses the phone to a great advantage in the logging woods several miles away.

—Kenansville News: The thousands of friends of Colonel Thomas S. Kenan will regret to hear that his health is poor. Col. Kenan has been in New York for treatment for some time.

—Clarkton Express: The largest cabbage we ever say was on exhibition here Tuesday. It weighed 14 3-4 pounds and was raised by Mr. Travis Cain, who lives near Bladenboro, No finer than this can be raised anywhere.

—Kenansville News: Beans, cucumbers, pepper, cantaloupes, melons, and huckleberries will go forward from this section from now on. The quotations on potatoes are below the average this season and the crop will be a failure.

—Sampson Democrat: Since the installing of the large boiler by the Electric Light and Power Company, Clinton has taken on much of the aspect of a city. The streets and many of the business houses and private residences are well lighted.

Rockingham, June 26: Lightning struck Steele's Mills a night or so ago, doing considerable damage. But for the kindly assistance of the automatic sprinklers, the entire mill would have been burned up. The night watchman was stunned. The damage done is estimated at about $4,000.

—Rockingham, June 26: Four miles of the six miles of road between Rockingham and Hamlet have been completed. It is understood that the two miles nearest Hamlet will be worked by private subscription. When completed this will make an excellent driveway between the two neighboring towns and do much towards shorening the distance.

—Newbern, June 26: John Clodfelton, a carpenter, employed on the Elks temple, fell 31 feet striking the floor of the building and breaking the temporary floorong. He suffered a dislocated shoulder, a broken hand, fearful bruises on head and body, a fracture at the base of the skull and internal injuries. He is in a very precarious condition and it is doubtful if he recovers.

—Kenansville News: Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, who is known all over North Carolina as one of the State's foremost orators, will address the Confederate Veterans here on Thursday, August 1st, Editor John A. Oates, of Fayetteville, who is also a fine platform speaker will address the audience. There will be a large gathering of people at Kenansville on that day. Put your pigs in a pen and get everything ready for a great outing and picnic. Give the old soldiers the day and make it one of gladness.

—Kenansville News: Tobacco is still improving and the crop is maturing much faster than the farmers expected. Mr. Walter J. Smith, who has 54 acres in tobacco was the first to cure a barn in this county. His tobacco was set out with one of the improved Bemis Transplanters. This proves that the machines are better for the growth of the plants, the grade of tobacco and for the labor saved. Fortunately this year the growers had no dry weather and they generally got a good stand.

—Wilson, June 26: This morning near Black Creek, this county, an unknown negro dressed in overalls attempted assault on Mrs. Scott, a very respectable lady. The arrival of a party who heard Mrs. Scott's screams, prevented the brute from accomplishing his purpose as he had Mrs. Scott by the throat. The negro ran and parties are hunting the surrounding country. If he is caught, speedy work will probably follow. The negro is believed to be one of the hands working on the new railroad. Mrs. Scott was not hurt.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit. Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Belle of Virginia
BLENDED RYE

When a man goes for a drink of Belle of Virginia Whiskey he hurries because he knows he will have a fine drink, and when he comes away he smiles and smacks his lips because he has had it. Belle of Virginia is a blended whiskey—a rye whiskey carefully and scientifically blended from fine, pure, old whiskies. It's a really good honest article and to those who like a blended whiskey it will give satisfaction clear down to the ground.

Sold at the places where gentlemen go to get a drink.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 27.—The cotton market was quiet today, but ruled generally steady and closed steady at a net advance of 3 to 8 points. Sales were estimated at 200,000 bales. The opening was steady at an advance of 1 point on July, but generally 2 to 5 lower in response to lower cables than due and continued good weather in the South. The strength of July on the first notice day, which is tomorrow, exerted a strong influence on the later months, however, and shortly after the opening prices began to work higher on covering of shorts and moderate support from Wall street and wire houses. Private crop reports continued of a very bullish average, particularly from Alabama, in spite of the better weather, helping the tone of the market to some extent. The high point was reached in the late trading and the close was only a point or so off from the best. The local stock of certified cotton as reported today is 142,329 bales, against 136,165 bales on June first. Tenders on July contracts tomorrow are not expected to be very heavy, and it is believed that the scattering July interest must be pretty well evened up, owing to the absence of any special activity in that position during today's trading.

Receipts at the ports today, 3,533 bales, against 2,805 last week and 4,170 last year. For the week, 25,000 bales, against 25,348 last week and 3,798 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,171 bales, against 1,208 last year, and at Houston 446 bales, against 529 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady 10 points advance. Middling uplands, 13.00; middling Gulf, 13.25; sales, none. Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 27.—The dry goods jobbing market was quite active today and results of the clearance sales were satisfactory. The primary market holds firm with a leaning toward the quiet side. The offerings of raw silk from the new crop in Japan were made during the day and ten bales sold at $5 per pound, a lower price than mills were anticipating.

HEALTH OF WOMEN

In this nineteenth century to keep up with the march of progress every power of woman is strained to its utmost, and the tax upon her physical system is far greater than ever.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines. They relied upon roots and herbs to cure weaknesses and disease, and their knowledge of roots and herbs was far greater than that of women today.

It was in this study of roots and herbs that Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value.

This medicine made from native roots and herbs contains no narcotics or other harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

Mrs. C. E. Fink, of Carnegie, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every suffering woman would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and write to you for advice. It has done me a world of good and what it has accomplished for me I know it will do for others."

When women are troubled with Irregularities, Displacements, Ulceration, Inflammation, Backache, Nervous Prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case.

LOVING TRIAL MAKES PROGRESS

Testimony Closed and Statement to Jury Will Be Argued To-Day

THAW CASE AS PRECEDENT

Judge Barksdale Ruled That Micc Loving's Story of Fateful Buggy Ride Could Not Be Attacked By the Prosecution.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Houston, Va., June 27.—The taking of testimony in the case of former Judge William G. Loving, who was placed on trial here last Monday for the murder of Theodore Estes in Nelson county on April 22, was concluded at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The court adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning when the instructions to the jury will be argued before Judge Barksdale. The rapidity with which the trial has progressed has been most surprising to all concerned.

Today marked a most important turning in the case, when Judge Barksdale rendered an opinion concerning the admissibility of certain evidence, the decision dealing a heavy blow to the prosecution. Yesterday Attorney Daniel Harmon for the prosecution announced his intention to call witnesses to show that the story told by Miss Elizabeth Loving to her father that she was drugged and assaulted by Theordore Estes was a fabrication and that Estes never offered an indignity to the girl, even suggesting that there might be another motive back of the killing. The defense objected on the ground that since testimony had no bearing on the case and whether true or false had nothing to do with the question of Judge Loving's state of mind at the time of the tragedy. Judge Barksdale, in a lengthy opinion today sustained the contention of the defense, and among the cases he cited as precedents was the Thaw trial in New York.

After the opinion of Judge Barksdale had been rendered the prosecution began the examination of a number of witnesses in rebuttal of the evidence introduced by the defense that Loving was insane at the time of the shooting. During the morning seven witnesses were examined. Most of these reside in Amherst and Nelson counties and have known Judge Loving for many years. The trend of their testimony was that they had never heard the insanity of Judge Loving discussed before this trial and they had always regarded him as a sane man, with a mind superior to the ordinary. Several further declared that the defendant was a high tempered man, was intolerant of the opinions of those who opposed him. It was also testified that Judge Loving was an excellent hunter, a good shot, had served with honor as a judge and had had charge of large estates.

Recess was taken from 12 o'clock until 4 o'clock to give the prosecution time to prepare a hypothetical question to propound to an expert on insanity—Dr. J. S. DeJarnette, of the Western State Hospital at Staunton. This question was similar to the one asked Dr. Emmons, of Washington yesterday by the defense. It reviewed the life, an experiences of Judge Loving, his marriag, separation from his wife, his struggle against the whiskey habit, his trip to an institute for the cure of that habit, the account of the story told him by his daughter, the killing of young Estes and his appearance and actions after the tragedy.

There were some variations to the two questions, the defense taking a more serious view of his appearance after the shooting. In reply to the question "what effect do you think such experience would have on the mind of this man?" Dr. DeJarnette said: "I think he would be very angry from the provocation that he thought his daughter had been ruined by the young man referred to, but not insane."

Dr. DeJarnette testified that during his connection with the Western State Hospital he had under his care 4,500 patients suffering from diseases of the brain. He was closely examined by counsel for the obth sides. Mr. Lee, for the defense, touched on numerous diseases, their cause and effect. Dr. DeJarnette testified as to the effect of acute alcoholism on the brain, the effect of insanity on the nerves and tissues, the temporary and permanent results from delirium tremens, the effect of stress and strain on the mind, how sudden joy, excitement, horror, disappointment, grief, etc., could affect the mental faculties. Most of his testimony as well as the questions asked him were of a technical nature. When Dr. DeJarnette left the stand, Attorney Wood Bouldin, for the prosecution announced, "we rest our case."

The attorneys for both sides tonight held conference to prepare instruction to be submitted to the court tomorrow.

At the morning session today, T. H. McGinnis, a liveryman at Lovingston, testified that he say Judge Loving on the day of the tragedy, just a minute before it occurred. He talked with the defendant, who asked for Theodore Estes. Witness told him that he thought Estes was in a car and Judge Loving started in the direction indicated. The only evidence Judge Loving showed of excitement was that his face was red. After the shooting he talked with Judge Loving who remarked: "A doctor will do no good. I shot to kill."

"Did you notice anything unusual or peculiar about Loving after the shooting?"

"I did not observe him cloely."

"Did you perceive any evidences of mental weakness after the tragedy?"

"I cannot say as I did."

The defense secured from the witness a statement that Judge Loving after the tragedy, made to him when asked why he killed young Estes, which was: "Theodore Estes took my daughter out buggy roding and drugged and ruined her."

McGinnis is a bondsman of Judge Loving and was summoned as a witness by both sides.

E. L. Kidd, county clerk of Nelson county at whose home Miss Elizabeth Loving spent the night after the buggy ride, testified that he had known Judge Loving for years and that he had the reputation for being a great sportsman and was a good shot. He further said Judge Loving's handwriting was clear and distinct. The witness stated that he never heard of the defendant's being insane or having an hereditary taint of insanity.

W. M. Dawson, a rural letter carrier of Lovingston, testified that he had known Judge Loving ten of fifteen years and regarded him as a high tempered man. Witness had never heard that Judge Loving was insane.

J. O. Loving, of Lovingston, testified that Judge Loving had a very strong will and intolerant of those who opposed him in actions or opinion. He believed everybody was wrong except himself said the witness.

"When was the first time you ever heard it suggested that Judge Loving was insane?"

"It was about ten days ago."

It was brought out by the defense that the witness was connected by marriage with the Estes family.

L. J. Sheffield, of Lovingston, had known Judge Loving for ten or twelve years, but had noticed no indications of mental diseases.

John T. Fitzpatrick, of Nelson county, testified that he had known Judge Loving for about 20 years, and had never heard his sanity questioned. In reply to questions by defense he said that Judge Loving might have remained drunk almost continuously on the farm and witness not hear of it.

John Horsley, the first witness of the forenoon, who has known Judge Loving for a number of years, said that he considered Judge Loving very bright.

NOT FOR BRYAN FOR PRESIDENT

Pennsylvania Democrats Shelve Resolution Endorsing Nebraskan for 1908

REPUBLICAN GRAFT EXPOSED

Ringing Resolution Demands Investigation of Auditor General's Office. Former Member of Legislature Nominated for Treasurer.

NOT FOR BRYAN..... ... ...

Harrisburg, Pa., June 27.—John G. Harman, of Columbus county, was nominated for State treasurer by today's Democratic State Convention on a platform confined to State issues. Harman is a former member of the Legislature. A resolution endorsing William Jennings Bryan for the Presidency was shelved.

State Treasurer Wm. H. Berry, who claims the credit for having uncovered the Capitol scandal, was chairman of the convention and made a speech advocating the election of a Democratic treasurer as a check on the Republican State officials. He commended the Capitol Investigation Commission and said that much of the testimony taken by the commission has substantiated the charges he made in the last campaign.

The platform pledges the party to a searching investigation of the auditor general's office and demands the speedy prosecution of those responsible for the alleged frauds in furnishing and equipping the Capitol. The Republican party is condemned for its failure to amend the ballot laws and for the defeat by the recent legislature of the bill for a popular vote at the primaries upon United States Senatorial candidates.

At the meeting of the resolutions committee, S. M. Seibert, of Potter county, took exception to the silence of the plaform submitted on national matters. Mr. Seibert said he could see no reason why a Democratic party should be afraid to endorse Wm. J. Bryan. There were cries for a vote on the platform, but Mr. Seibert stood his ground and offered the following resolution:

"We are heartily in accord with the beliefs and positions taken by our peerless leader and statesman, Wm. Jennings Bryan, the Jefferson and Jackson of the Democratic party of today, and endorse his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President in 1908."

The resolution was laid on the table after which the platform as it had been drafted was adopted by the committee.

After the platform had been read on the floor, of the convention, Mr. Seibert asked permission to submit a minority report. The chairman of the resolutionss committee said that no minority report was made in the committee and therefore could not be considered by the convention. He then moved the previous question and the platform was unanimously adopted.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for State treasurer.

GOOD WITNESS FOR HAYWOOD

Edward Boyce, Once Miner, Now Rich Mine Owner, On Stand Yesterday

HE MADE RABID STATEMENT

Explained That He Urged Miners to Organize Rifle Club to Fight State Troops—Orchard's Story Flatly Denied.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Boise, Idaho, June 27.—A ruling made today by Judge Wood while Edward Boyce, for years the leader of the Western Federation of Miners and now a wealthy mine owner of the Couer d'Alenes, was testifying in behalf of William D. Haywood, may limit materially the showing of the defense as to the existence of the counter conspiracy against Haywood and his associates.

James H. Hawley, for the State, obpected to a general question as to the policy and practice of mine owners throughout the West in blacklisting union miners, and in the argument that followed Clarence Darrow, for the defense, claimed the same latitude in proving counter conspiracy that the State enjoyed in showing a conspiracy.

Mr. Hawley contended that the State had directly shown the exeistence of a conspiracy by Harry Orchard and by so doing had laid the foundation for and made the connection of all the evidence subsequently offered on the subject. He said that the defense was trying to show a counter conspiracy by proving various isolated instances and certain general conditions, none of which was connected with the case and for none of which a proper foundation had been laid.

In ruling, the court accepted in part the contention of the prosecution and limited the proof of the defense along this line to events in Colorado and the Couer d'Alenes connected with the case as now established.

Ed Boyce was the principal witness of the day, and his testimony was chiefly devoted to the history, purposes and work of the Western Federation. He denied the existence of an "inner circle" or that there had ever been a conspiracy in the organization to do an illegal act. The chief importance of Boyce's crossexamination was the production of a speech by him at the convention of the Federation at Salt Lake in 1899 in which he said that every union should have a rifle club and every member a rifle, so that these Federations could march 25,000 armed men in the ranks of labor.

Mr. Boyce would not agree with the accuracy of the quotation, but saying that the sentiment was correct, declared with spirit that when he spoke the words imputed to him he had in mind the misconduct of State troops in Colorado, the use of troops elsewhere against the Federation and the constitutional right of all citizens to bear arms, which was as much the right of the miner as the aristocrat.

William Easterly, one of the most important witnesses in the case was called just before adjournment and his testimony will be continued tomorrow. He occupied the witness chair, long enuogh, however, to deny directly the statements of Orchard, charging him with criminal misconduct in Colorado. He denied that he had ever discussed the Vindicator or any other plot with Orchard, or that he had helped Orchard in experiments for the device that blew up the Vindicator mine, and denied that he and Orchard had discussed the Vindicator matter or any subject with Moyer and Haywood at Federation headquarters in Denver.

ARGUING REDUCED RATE CASE

Southern Railway's Attorneys Heard Yesterday—Coast Line Today.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., June 27.—In the railway rate suit of the Southern against the State Corporation Commission, Walker D. Hines, today completed his argument for the Southern, and Chief Counsel A. P. Thom, also spoke for the company. Mr. Thom was followed by Judge Shepard, for the Commission. The feature of today's proceedings was an attack by the Commission counsel on Auditor Plant's affidavit in regard to the cost of doing business in North Carolina, on the ground that the report showed such cost as to be in greatly excess of the same officer's report before the Commission before the passage of the reduced rate law. The case closed with Judge Shepard's argument.

The hearing in a similar suit to the Southern's, that of the Atlantic Coast Line stockholders against the North Carolina Corporation Commission, will begin tomorrow.

CONGO ROOFING

You can lay it yourself. It's not hard work and it doesn't take long. After it's done, it's done for a long, long time. Storms won't hurt Congo Roofing, wind won't rip it, heat won't soften it or make it brittle. It can't rot, rust, corrode, creep or leak. It is the "Never-Leak Roofing."

Write for sample. That will tell the story better than words.
